May Build a Depot.

It is possible that the St. Paul railway Company may decide to build that depot in this city that they have been talking about for several years past, but which seems to be no nearer the starting point now than it was several years ago.

Atty. Geo. L. Williams took the matter up with the Company some time ago, at which time he assured the company that the citizens here would appeal to the railway commission concerning the matter if something were not done by the company in the near future.

Mr. Williams has received a letter from the company stating that they will not start work on the depot until after the first of July.

JAPS WERE TOO MANY FOR OUR BOYS

The Japanese team that played in this city last Friday afternoon proved to be somewhat swifter at the national game than the aggregation of ball tossers from this city, and the result was that the locals were cleaned up by a score of 8 to 4.

It started in us if our boys were going to clean up the orientals, but it looked later as if they were just fooling with us, and when they ran in six scores during one inning without hardly batting the ball outside of the diamond, our boys looked like a bunch from Big Flats, who were taking their first lessons in the national game.

The Japs do not seem to play such an awfully strong game from a baseball viewpoint, but they are on the job all the time, and are especially good at base running, and also do some good dodging.

Their pitcher was also good and seemed to be able to keep the locals guessing most of the time. They play a foxy game and it takes a good bunch to beat them.

Win a Game Apiece.

The Gross Hardware Company team of Milwaukee played ball in this city Saturday and Sunday and the visitors lost one and won a game.

The game on Saturday resulted in a victory for the locals, the score being 7 to 1. The battery was Foster and Sumner. Nelson made a home run during the game and also a two banger.

The game on Sunday went to the Milwaukee boys by a score of 3 to 0. Both games were good ones and thoroughly enjoyed by the spectators.

Smookey Deitzler, who has been playing with the locals, has gone to Stevens Point to play. Cook has been released by the local management, and Sumner has been engaged for the season.

The locals go to Rhineland the latter part of the week, and will play with the boys there on Saturday and Sunday.

An effort is being made by the Marshfield Eagles to arrange a game between the Stevens Point and the Grand Rapids teams, to be played at Marshfield on Thursday of next week. They offer to put up one hundred dollars, winner to take all the money. There is little question but what the game will be pulled off.

COMMENCEMENT AT THE COUNTY NORMAL

The Class Day exercises at the County Normal will be free to the general public this year. On other years, these exercises have been held in the rooms of the Training School building, so that the attendance had to be limited. This year, however, it has been decided to hold these exercises in the auditorium of the Lincoln high school. This will accommodate all who wish to attend, so the invitation this year is general.

The Commencement exercises will, as usual, be held in the same building. Prof. C. E. Patzer, of Milwaukee will deliver the annual address.

At the Class Day exercises this year there will be presented a humorous Class Play written by members of the school. It is a dramatization of a story found in a recent publication. The County Normal presented an original play two years ago, which was one of the best it has ever given, and it has since been staged by another training school at its class day program.

The Class Day program will be presented Wednesday evening, June 21, and the regular commencement exercises will occur on Thursday evening, June 22.

The Alumni of the school will hold a reception and jubilation on Friday evening to which only alumni are invited.

Following are the names of the graduates:

May Build a Depot.

It is possible that the St. Paul railway Company may decide to build that depot in this city that they have been talking about for several years past, but which seems to be no nearer the starting point now than it was several years ago.

At any rate, Geo. L. Williams took the matter up with the Company some time ago, at which time he assured the company that the citizens here would appeal to the railway company concerning the matter if something were not done by the company in the near future.

Mr. Williams has received a letter from the company stating that it was their intention to start work on the new depot soon after the first of July.

It is to be hoped that the matter will not slip their memory again before they get the work started.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

The following marriage licenses were issued by County Clerk Khorst during the past week:

Mary Ann McGowan of Pittsville to Glen Perry Jonkman of Independence, Wis.

Jacob Grimm to Sarah Fry both of Arpin.

Frank H. Vanderhoof of Port Edwards to Mathilda Knippel of Grand Rapids.

Frank J. Barnhardt to Joanna L. Bank both of Marshfield.

Oswald Carl Dix to Helen Wower both of Marshfield.

George J. Baltus to Martha E. Markoe both of Auburnville.

Henry R. Tava of Brandon Village to Dora Steinke of Marshfield.

John P. Miller to Bertha Engels both of Grand Rapids.

Henry W. Staven to Alice Marick both of Sigel.

Arpin Man Hurt.

Robert A. Quaman, a brakeman on the Soo line, was seriously injured at Marshfield Thursday night while switching. He stepped between two gravel cars which were about four feet apart, and was caught between the humpers as they came together. His back was injured, but whether he was hurt internally is not yet known. He was taken to the hospital at Marshfield. Though it was at first believed that he was fatally hurt, the physicians now think he will recover.

Quaman has been in the employ of the Soo for two months. He is married and lives at Arpin. His wife is with him at the hospital.

Look Out for a Faker.

The Lansing Wheelbarrow Co. writes the Tribune as follows:

A party who sometimes gives the name of "Patterson" and sometimes the name of "Ziegler" both of which names are evidently assumed, is working in Wisconsin, pretending that he is a salesman for us and inducing people to advance him small sums of $5.00 or $6.00 on drafts that he makes on us.

We have not the least idea of this man, but he started at Milwaukee and was heard from last at Fond du Lac and Oshkosh, and is evidently working North and West.

It might be well to warn your citizens to be on the look out for him and attempt his capture.

Industrial Agent Engaged.

S. F. Durga, at one time a resident of this city, but for some time a resident of Neenah, where he was local agent for the Soo line, has been engaged by the Commercial Club of this city as industrial agent for that institution.

Mr. Durga is well known to many of our older residents and the directors of the Club feel that they have secured the services of a good man. Mr. Durga will enter upon the discharge of his duties at once.

The officers of the Club already have some propositions under consideration which they are investigating, and there may be something to report in the near future.

Trouble Over a Cat.

JAPS WERE TOO MANY FOR OUR BOYS

The Japanese team that played in this city last Friday afternoon proved to be somewhat swifter at the national game than the aggregation of ball players from this city, and the result was that the locals were cleaned up by a score of 5 to 4.

It started in as if our boys were going to clean up the orientals, but it looked later as if they were just fooling with us, and when they ran in six scores during one inning without hardly batting the ball outside of the diamond, our boys looked like a bunch from Big League, who were taking their first lessons in the national game.

The Japs do not seem to play such an awfully strong game from a base ball viewpoint, but they are on the job all the time, and are especially good at base running, and also do some good fielding.

Their pitcher was also good and seemed to be able to keep the locals guessing most of the time. They play a fast game and it takes a good bunch to beat them.

Wreck on the Green Bay.

Stevens Point Journal.

Four cars were thrown into the ditch and one person injured when west bound train No. 3 on the Green Bay & Western left the track four miles west of Shawano, Thursday night. The train was made up of passenger and freight cars, but none of the former left the track. Three box cars and one stock car containing hogs were thrown into the ditch and demolished, the live stock scattering noisily over the marsh. The mail car left the track but remained upright.

The train was going 20 miles an hour when the accident occurred. A defective truck was given as the cause of the trouble. The only one who was injured was a passenger in the last coach, who suffered a broken knee cap. He was taken to Black Creek, a short distance east of the scene of the accident and from there was taken in a carriage to Appleton, 20 miles distant. The engine broke loose from the rest of the train, and consequently was not pulled from the track. The passenger cars continued for a hundred yards after the others rolled over into the ditch.

Passengers on the unfortunate train were obliged to wait until the morning train, which is due here at 10:32 a. m.

Win a Game Apiece.

The Cross Hardware Company team of Milwaukee played ball in this city Saturday and Sunday and the visitors lost one and won a game.

The game on Saturday resulted in a victory for the locals, the score being 7 to 1. The battery was Foster and Semet. Nelson made a home run during the game and also a two runner.

The game on Sunday went to the Milwaukee boys by a score of 3 to 0. Both games were good ones and thoroughly enjoyed by the spectators.

Smoky Ditzler, who has been playing with the locals, has gone to Stevens Point to play. Cook has been released by the local management, and Semet has been engaged for the season.

The locals go to Rhinelander the latter part of the week, and will play with the boys there on Saturday and Sunday.

An effort is being made by the Milwaukee Eagles to arrange a game between the Stevens Point and the Grand Rapids teams, to be played at Marshfield on Thursday of next week. They offer to put up one hundred dollars, winner to take all the money. There is little question but what the game will be pulled off.

Legislative Doings.

Madison, Wis., June 14.—It is a battle to the death between the factions that have been lined up with the Donald and Jones road bill and the struggle that is now on is the most bitter that has developed during this session. The earlier rounds were all favorable to the Donald measure and the Jones bill seemed doomed but the situation now is a reversal of form and it is believed that the Donald bill will be recalled from the Senate today and amended so that it will be nearer the Jones bill than its real self.

Assemblyman Gettle and Jones have waged a good fight in this instance and the measure is turned down. They have objected strenuously to the bill which gives the road making power of the entire state over into the control and keeping of the state university, creating numberless jobs for the embryo engineers there and paralyzing the efforts of the farmers of the state. The Jones bill features will be much more attractive to the House members after the speakers get through, when the bill is brought back for reconsideration.

In this matter, as in several others this session, the Democratic members have been playing a most shrewd game of politics. They have voted solidly against the Donald bill and further endeavored themselves to the farmers of the state. They are also "right" on the tuberculosis test bill and excise matters, from the farmers' viewpoint, and they will have a strong appeal for the farmer vote when the next election rolls around.

Great interest is being shown throughout the state in the great automobile races to be staged in Milwaukee Friday and Saturday. The most skilled and daring drivers of the racing world are all to be there and if the weather continues good, hundreds of touring parties will head their machines for the Cream City for these events. The mile track at the State Fair park is said to be in the finest possible condition for the speed trials.

The funeral will be held this afternoon from the east side Lutheran church, Rev. H. Mauseke officiating.

COMMENCEMENT AT THE COUNTY NORMAL

The Class Day exercises at the County Normal will be from the general public this year. On other years, these exercises have been held in the rooms of the Training School building, so that the attendance had to be limited. This year, however, it has been decided to hold these exercises in the auditorium of the Lincoln high school. This will accommodate all who wish to attend, so the limitation this year is general.

The commencement exercises will, as usual, be held in the same building, Prof. C. E. Putzer, of Milwaukee will deliver the annual address.

At the Class Day exercises this year there will be presented a humorous Class Play written by members of the school. It is a dramatization of a story found in a recent publication. The County Normal presented an original play two years ago, which was one of the best it has ever given, and it has since been staged by another training school at its class day program.

The Class Day program will be presented Wednesday evening, June 21, and the regular commencement exercises will occur on Thursday evening, June 22.

The Alumni of the school will hold a reception and jubilation on Friday evening to which only alumni are invited.

Following are the names of the graduates:

Builders of cement walks claim that they are troubled and hindered in their work by people who persist in walking over cement pavements before they are sufficiently dry to bear their weight, the result being that the walks must either be repaired, or else left with the footprints in them.

Now there is a certain class of people who have a mania for scribbling their names in public places, and will take desperate chances in order to get their names in a more conspicuous place than a previous visitor.

Then there are others who never fail to furnish a photograph to a solicitor so that their face may appear in the new atlas or history, even the their only claim to prominence may be the fact that they have lived in the community for the past twenty years.

Another lot buy themselves immense monuments before they are dead, in the hope that they will not be forgotten by future generations.

There may be another class of maniacs developing who wish to leave their footprints where they may be seen by the passing multitude day after day. The foot marks may not be recognized, but neither are the names, nor the photographs nor the monuments after the lapse of a few years.

Changes in Game Law.

The game regulation bill, over which much time and hard work has been put in, was passed in the rush on the last of the legislative session. The house passed the bill long enough to amend it in a number of particulars. Rather than lose the bill entirely, the senate consented to the house amendments.

As the bill now stands non-residents may not take game birds out of the state except as open hand license and the number of birds they may take is reduced to twenty-five.

A clause was added to prevent any person while hunting to skin, pluck or otherwise mutilate game so that its identity may not be easily discernable. The provision to prevent sneak boat shooting was cut out entirely.

The number of ducks, geese and similar water birds that may be shot is reduced to twenty-five that may be had in possession at any one time.

The number of deer that may be shot was fixed at two and the provision to prevent killing of deer was stricken out. The deer season was fixed from Nov. 1 to Nov. 30 instead of Nov. 10 to 30, but the licenses issued are good only for twenty-five days from date of issuance.

The season for shooting ducks, snipe, plover and woodcock is fixed at from Sept. 15 to Nov. 30.

Geo. N. Wood caught a pound and a half trout in Chester Creek on Monday, the fish being something over fourteen inches long. Mr. Wood and Attorney Williams started for the Rocke Erie near Plainfield, but when they got out onto the marsh they found that the recent rains had made the road so soft as to be impassable, and the consequence was that they had to turn back and finished out the day at Chatter.

Mrs. Ina E. Johnson, who has been with her sister, Mrs. John H. Noyes, the past year, was called to Providence, Rhode Island, by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. K. A. Edwards.

May Build a Depot.

It is possible that the St. Paul railway company may decide to build that depot in this city that they have been talking about for several years past, but which seems to be no nearer the starting point now than it was several years ago.

Apprentice L. Williams took the matter up with the company some time ago, at which time he assured the company that the citizens here would appeal to the railway commission concerning the matter if something were not done by the company in the near future.

Mr. Williams has received a letter from the company stating that they intend to start work on the new depot soon after the first of July.

It is to be hoped that the matter will not slip their memory again before they get the work started.

Arpin Man Hurt.

Robert A. Gannon, a brakeman on the Soo line, was seriously injured at Marshfield Thursday night while switching. He stepped between two gravel cars which were about four feet apart, and was caught between the humpers as they came together. His back was injured, but whether he was hurt internally is not yet known. He was taken to the hospital at Marshfield. Though it was at first believed that he was fatally hurt, the physicians now think he will recover.

Gannon has been in the employ of the Soo for two months. He is married and lives at Arpin. His wife is with him at the hospital.

Look Out for a Fakier.

The Lansing Wheelbarrow Co. writes the Tribune as follows:

A party who sometimes gives the name of "Patterson" and sometimes the name of "Zigler" both of which names are evidently assumed, is working in Wisconsin, pretending that he is a salesman for us and in facting people to advance him small sums of $5.00 or $10.00 on drafts that he makes on us.

We have not the least idea who this man is, but he started at Milwaukee and was heard from last at Fond du Lac and Oshkosh, and is evidently working North and West.

GRAND RAPIDS, WIS.

ENCOURAGING BRIGHT PUPILS.

Parents and educators everywhere will be interested in the experiment now being tried in the Cincinnati public schools of establishing a classroom for especially bright pupils, which would appear to be the logical accompaniment of the classroom for backward pupils. The proposition that it is unfair to hold back the apt or clever child in the ranks of the mediocre as it is to speed the dull pupil to a pace he cannot maintain, appears as reasonable and common sense. It will be argued with much force that the system which makes provision for caring for the backward pupil cannot be justified without provision in made for accompanying the needs of those who can advance more rapidly than the average. Says the St. Paul Pioneer Press: "The proposition simply provides for the application to schooling of the plan, that is generally adopted and followed in the business world, where wage scales, changes of promotion and all the advantages are based on the ability of those employed to advance rapidly in one line or another. This has been the rule in the school where the system has been adjusted to meet the requirements of the average pupil with special provision made for those below the average. The result of this system has been to retard, for which the pupils are not to blame, the Cincinnati educators have decided that the old system of trying to make all children, at the same educational pattern is unsatisfactory in general and particularly unfair to the bright pupils, who are to be given special attention under a more sensible and equitable method."

In putting its ban on the "common drinking cup," the New York Board of Health is doing a good thing. The public drinking cup is a carrier of infection and the habit of using an individual drinking vessel under all circumstances might be good to acquire. There are folding cups of metal, rubber and even of paper, which one can keep about the person without discomfort and can get at trifling expense. Scarlet fever, diphtheria, influenza and even tuberculosis are transmissible, and are frequently transmitted, through promiscuously used water glasses and teacups.

The famous auto expert who broke his neck in an effort to establish new speed records might have given his life in a better cause. A man, it is true, can easily find out if human manufacture can stand the terrific strain put upon it by these speed experiments, but if he finds to the contrary the knowledge is seldom of any use to him, nor does its acquisition serve even the minor purpose of being a warning to others. The need of the age is to learn more how to enjoy life, rather than faster ways of rushing through it.

GARY OPPOSED CUT

STEEL MEN WERE URGED BY CHAIRMAN TO DEFEY REBELIOUS FIRM.

STABILITY IS CALLED VITAL

Manufacturers Given Warning Against Wage Reductions at Late Conference of U. S. Corporation—Continuation of Cooperation Favored.

New York.—The arguments with which Albert H. Gary, chairman of the directors of the United States Steel corporation, addressed iron and steel manufacturers in New York and guests at a luncheon a week ago to discuss the independent action of the Republic Iron and Steel company in reducing prices have become public. Mr. Gary made public the text of his speech, and threw more light upon what took place behind the closed doors at the dining room at the Metropolitan club, where the conference was held.

Mr. Gary argued for continued cooperation among the steel makers and for stability in prices, but his apparent wishes on the price question were overruled by a general decision to meet the cuts of the Republic company. Mr. Gary touched upon the possibility of wage reductions, the value of fair dealing, and frankness among manufacturers, and the rights and duties of great corporations in view of the various extreme court decisions in the Standard Oil case.

"I have advocated and shall always advocate, so long as I believe I have a right to do so," said Mr. Gary, "the stability of prices, the regularity of business conduct on the part of all that is calculated to recognize and advance the interests of others."

"I have urged you to remember and to attend attention to the fact that when you make substantial reductions in your prices, if you reduce the price that is unfair and unreasonable and you make so small a profit that it does not yield you a fair return on your investment and your risk, you at least place for consideration before every one the possible necessity of reducing the cost of production, including profitably if not principally the wages which you are paying or may be allowed to pay to the men or the men in your employ."

"Do not forget that the laboring men—the employees of the corporations—have more at risk when these questions are considered of reducing prices below what is reasonable and fair than the employer. You have a right to run the risk of being compelled to cut wages below what they ought to be unless you are driven to it, and I hope under the present circumstances, gentlemen, that whatever may be done, or whatever may happen as a result of present conditions, you will not reduce the wages of your employees until you feel it is an absolute necessity to do so."

Referring to the bombshell the Republic company threw into the steel market by reducing prices, Mr. Gary said: "We are confronted with a serious and disagreeable problem. It is not for me to criticize men nor to pass judgment on the motives of men. Whether people who have changed their minds suddenly are actuated by motives of cupidity or motives of necessity is not for me to say."

"I would not expect or ask any one to do anything he believed wrong, legally or morally; but, on the other hand, gentlemen, if any one who has been conducting in a lawful way, not in secret, but under conditions well known and frequently exposed by all of us, suddenly changes his opinion and believes it is for his pecuniary interest for the time being to withdraw from associating with us and declines to give us any information concerning what he is doing or proposes to do, leaving himself free to go to your customer and mine and get the business for himself, regardless of price, and simply for the purpose of filling his bill temporarily and securing for himself a customer who has been your customer or mine, then I do not hesitate to say that, so far as I am concerned, I am perfectly willing to let him stand outside of the circle of friendly conversation and open and above board fair dealing and frankness in expression of the views and sufficient influence it shall not in the least affect the relations of all the rest of us."

DIAZ OFF FOR SPAIN

SAILED FROM HAVANA FOR FUTURE HOME.

Exiled President's Son Asserts Money Power Backed Up Mexican Revolution for Private Gain.

Havana.—The steamer Ypiranga, with former President Diaz on board, sailed for Spain. Supplementing the Cuban courtesies to Diaz and his party, the Spanish clubs and societies of Havana gave the retiring executive a great parting demonstration, which was taken here as a forerunner of the reception awaiting Diaz in Spain.

The exiled president refused to be interviewed, but permitted his son, Col. Porfirio Diaz Jr., to speak for him. Colonel Diaz said:

"My father is deeply sensible of the wisdom of the restraint shown by President Taft in the attitude of the United States toward Mexico during the recent crisis. He believes in the true friendship demonstrated thereby, and all Mexicans appreciate it and have a deep sense of gratitude."

Colonel Diaz made a direct charge that Madero's revolution was framed by foreign capital, naming certain American and English corporations. He said:

"How can this Madero claim to be a patriot heading a patriotic movement when foreign capitalists, seeking private gain, give him money to fight with?"

"It is plain to see that certain holders of bonds of the Mexican National railway hoped by the revolution to prevent the redemption of these bonds, and then the railways would revert to them. Madero sold himself to foreign capital."

Colonel Diaz thus characterized the Madero party government:

"It is like a dog that has found a bone. In this case, the bone, worth $12,000,000, is the treasury. Lots of other dogs follow him and hope to get possession of the bone soon. They will fight and the strongest dog will carry off the bone. Madero is not the strongest dog."

BIG "FIREBUG" PLOT BARED

Chicago Clothier After Confessing to Hiring Gang to Burn Plant—Kills Himself.

Chicago.—After one of the strangest confessions to which the Chicago police ever have listened, wherein he admitted an incendiary fire and exposed a band of professional firebugs who burn stores for a per cent. of the insurance, Leopold Dreyfus, the clothier at 235 Wabash street, shot and killed himself in his home.

Dreyfus, who, with his brother Lazarus and a bookkeeper, Max Cohen, was arrested as the result of a $12,000 fire in his store, made a detailed confession, which he signed. He made these revelations:

The fire in the Dreyfus establishment was the work of a "firebug trust," which attests to all the details of destroying a business house by fire for a part of the insurance.

Dreyfus paid the agents of the incendiaries $300 in advance of the "job," and promised to pay $1,700 more, making a total of $2,000, as soon as he could collect the insurance.

Six or eight men compose the ring of firebugs and have made big money out of their operations. The police say they have their names and the order has gone out to round them up.

WILL THE OLD ADAGE COME TRUE?

TAFT IS ATTACKED

UNDERWOOD PRESENTS REPORT ON WOOL TARIFF REVISION BILL TO HOUSE.

BOARD ALSO GETS SCORING

Minority Members of Ways and Means Committee Declare Measure Is "Cold Blooded" and Brought Forward for "Political Reasons."

Washington.—The long expected wool tariff revision bill was presented to the house by Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee. The long report accompanying it attacks President Taft and the tariff board.

Quoting President Taft's addresses after the passage of the Payne-Adelphi bill, in which he declared that "the woolen schedule is indefensible and I propose to say so," the report says: "The president made these public admissions earlier, while the tariff of 1909 was under consideration, by congress, his declarations would have been of real service to the people and would have enabled them to protect against the betrayal of the public welfare to private greed."

The president's silence at that time and his approval of the act of 1909 made it impossible for him to evade his full share of responsibility for the failure of revision which he now admits.

The report deals at some length with the attitude of the administration in not communicating to congress the data by the bureau of corporations concerning investigations of the steel and other industries.

"The report maintains that any further delay in the revision of the wool and woolen schedule would be objectionable to the public."

In explaining the determination of the committee not to put wool on the free list, but to reduce the present duty to 40 per cent. ad valorem, the committee insists that the Democratic caucus did the duty "in no way to be construed as an abandonment of any Democratic policy."

The committee states that there is no sufficient reason for continuing the complicated and troublesome system of classification of raw wool, characterized as it is a "great burden" and annoyance to the customs service and adding to the expense of collecting duties on raw wools.

A minority report is signed by Messrs. Payne, Dillzoll, Needham and Longworth. "For purely political reasons," it says, "this cold-blooded measure is brought forward. If it could become a law it would slaughter sheep in 1894 and close the mills much more universally."

SUFFRAGE MEASURE

SIGNED BY MCGOVERN

Men Must Ratify Change in Law Next Year.

EXPECT SWEEPING VICTORY

Association of Women Plan to Hold Meetings in Different Counties of Wisconsin—Other States Will Give Their Support.

Madison.—The James woman's suffrage bill was signed by Governor McGovern. The pen with which he signed the bill was presented to Senator James.

The bill carries a referendum clause and whether the women will be allowed to vote depends on the action of the men of Wisconsin at the 1912 general elections.

The women suffragists now will carry on an elaborate campaign to win the referendum.

According to Rev. Olympia Brown, Wisconsin's original suffragist, the association expects to cover every voting precinct in the state during the coming year. Meetings have been arranged for Oshkosh, Milwaukee and Madison, and Racine and Kenosha will be organized at the Milwaukee meeting on June 25.

The Illinois Suffrage association has promised its support, and will send Miss Harriet Grimm of Chicago through the state on an automobile speaking tour. The cutting off of committee reports by June 1, by virtue of a rule secured by the governing committee, has resulted in a chaotic situation on the legislature, especially in the lower house, and there is no obedience to it. It is a physical impossibility to report out all business remaining before committees within the stipulated time.

There is a big amount of energy bent on securing the defeat of the stock and bond bill, introduced in the senate. Since the introduction of this comprehensive bill and the recommendation for passage, representatives of corporate interests, including railroads and other public utilities, have been spreading the "alarm" through the corridors of the state house, declaring that its passage would absolutely cut off the investment of capital in this state in big enterprises.

The bill is along the lines laid down by the railroad commission, which is crippled under the present law in its efforts to regulate public utility rates. The commission is now compelled to take cognizance of all stock, whether it be watered or not, and all bonds, whether they be justified by the amount of property involved or whether they represent an effort to avoid reductions which on the basis of proper capitalization and bonding would be possible.

Great distress also has been shown against the "tax reform" bill, which has passed the assembly and recently came into the senate with a favorable recommendation, four members from each house dissenting. This bill would enable cities to employ experts to "ferret out" property which is now escaping taxation, on a contingent fee of 25 per cent. of all money actually collected, and the matter is optional with the city council. It is believed the senate may nudge the bill, but that the vote will be exceedingly close. The issue in the case of this bill is being joined with the fight on the stock and bond bill for the sake of greater strength.

The men behind the income tax protest to be optimistic for its final vote. The administration is not yet prepared to say that it believes the pending bill is just the sort of bill that should be passed, and the matter awaits a decision as to the propriety of going on with the bill. While the bill represents the work of the whole session on the part of the special committee and its hired experts it is still opposed, especially by corporations who are not satisfied with the bill as it is proposed to tax their increment.

The bill for the insurance of bank deposits, carrying a referendum requirement before it can become law, has gone over for a week, although there is no hope of its passage. With all senators present the bill will get 18 votes, and the number required under the constitution is 22. However, the supporters of the bill are determined to place every senator on record on the proposition, even if it is necessary to have a call of the house.

Boy Captures Wildcat.

Marshfield Herald:—Bleeding from many wounds and his clothes torn to shreds, the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Scobla, farmers residing in the town of McMillan, came home last Sunday from the woods carrying in his arms a young wildcat which he captured in a leg, winning in the fight by main strength and endurance. The animal was about half grown and from the looks of the boy's face, hands and clothing the strife for the survival of the fittest must have been a fierce one. A dog the boy had with him ran the cat in a log and with the aid of an axe the boy chopped him out capturing him alive. After getting him home the cat got away from his captor and hid in the basement but was soon after recaptured by the plucky youngster who by this time had all the fight he wanted and put an end to the cat's life with a club.

PULPIT NOT IN THEIR LINE

How Men Now Eminent in Judiciary of Country Disappointed Parents' Fond Expectations.

"There were three boys in our family out in Anshland county, Ohio," said Colonel Fred Paul Grosvenor at Charleston, W. Va., at the Willard hotel, "and our good old Lutheran parents decided that one of the three should be a preacher."

"Peter, the first born, was picked for the church, while Ben and myself were allowed to think of some other vocation. Well, when Peter left college he told father and mother that he guessed the church could get along without him, as he preferred the law. Then I was picked for the pulpit, and after a term in college my parents were shocked to learn that I had entered a business house far from home."

"That meant the selection of Ben, the youngest, for the church, and when Ben got through his college course he told the old folks at home that he thought it wiser to follow the example of Peter and enter the legal profession. There were no other boys, so what could father and mother do but exclaim, 'The Lord's will be done,' and give us each a parental blessing."

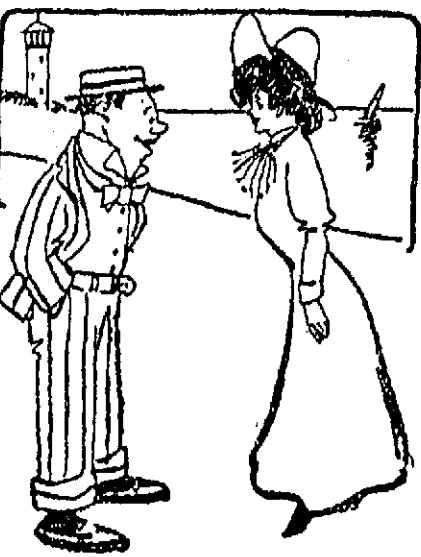

"Years after, when brother Peter reached the federal bench and then achieved distinction on the Pacific coast, our parents seemed reconciled to the loss sustained by the pulpit of the country."

Kidney trouble is too serious to neglect. Slight ailments are often forerunners of dangerous kidney illness and should be treated without delay. J. L. The doctors said I was beyond help. I began the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and gradually improved until completely cured. I have not had the slightest trouble since."

THREE CURED OF EZEEMA

"When a child, I suffered eight years with ezeema. I could not sleep at night, and had sores all over my chest. We had doctors and none could do any good, until my mother saw the advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies in the paper. We used the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent, and they cured me of ezeema. I also used them on my five children. Two of them had ezeema very badly. When my children had ezeema, I was not worried at all, as I knew the Cuticura Remedies would do their work. They had sores all over their heads, their hair would fall out, and they would scratch all night and day. They had it on their heads, face, and in back of the ears so that I thought their ears would drop off. I washed their heads and bodies with Cuticura Soap and they were clean as the driven snow. Cuticura Soap and Ointment also cured my children of ringworm. I would not be without the Cuticura Remedies. They are wonderful." (Signed) Mrs. Violet Cole, 26 S. Outguessing The BATTER

IN PITCHING and winning your games, I have often been asked by devotees of the American game, "how much figure does brain work cut?"

Many an honest young fanatic has asked me that question during the ten years and more that I have been pitching major league baseball, peering at my hand meanwhile as though he expected some such reply as "no headwork whatever." Many an older and wiser baseball follower, fortified by the wondrous knowledge that comes to men after years of squinting in the grand-stand, has asked me the same thing in a modified form.

How much figure does brainwork cut? I don't quite know myself. I do know that no pitcher, however powerful or agile, can hope to become a great performer without being thoroughly equipped "from the shoulders up." The steel arm is desirable, the good eye is even more desirable, but, without the little filling of gray matter that is popularly supposed to inhabit the skull, a pitcher might just as well pack his suitcase and go back to the quaint little village where he was first discovered. It isn't the iron in the arm, because lots of longshoremen could snap a pitcher's arm in two with a single twist; it's the combination of brain and body, the perfect cooperation of mind and muscle, that makes a man a successful major league twirler.

Most pitchers who break into fast company and stay there by consistently demonstrating their ability, are men that went through a long course of sprouts before they got anywhere. They, like hundreds of successful men in other walks of life, were forced to look, listen, and learn before they had anything like an even chance to win their spurs.

Many things have been said and written about pitchers outguessing batters, and batters outguessing pitchers, and to tell the truth there has always been a question in my mind about the outguessing proposition. I have seen so many instances where guesses went wrong—so many hundreds of instances—that I am about the last human being in the world to pose as an oracle on the subject of pitching psychology. Nevertheless, there certainly is a lot of psychology about pitching about the last human being in the world to pose as an oracle on the subject of pitching psychology.

Granting that a pitcher needs something more than a clear head, it must be admitted that the successful pitcher is always a student. There are a hundred and one little things that every good twirler has in his repertoire, a hundred and one little things that the average baseball lover doesn't know anything about. I have always made it a practice, before going into a crucial series, to get some kind of authentic information about the strength or weakness of every batter slated to face me, and once I know positively that a batter doesn't like speed, I feed him oceans of it. If I find that his weakness is a low curve, he gets that for a steady diet.

When we met the Athletics in the season of 1905, after having won the National league championship, I realized that a good part of the pitching burden would be on my shoulders, and I began making inquiries about the weak and strong points of the American league champions.

Monte Cross, who played on Connie Mack's infield in 1905, was known by me to be a dangerous hitter, though his average was not high. He was the kind of a hitter who was always bobbing up with a hit at a time when a hit meant trouble, and just before the series started, I did a little quiet detective work through friends of mine who knew the game and knew Monte. I had been told that Monte's weakness was a high fast ball, but when I talked to "Kid" Gleason of the Philadelphia Nationals, Gleason told me that Cross had fought against and overcome his weakness, and had developed into a murderer of the high, fast delivery. Keeping Gleason's advice in mind, I gave Cross nothing but low curves during the series, and had him helpless from the start.

I had it not been for Gleason's tip, Monte's always dangerous old might have caused trouble in that series, for there were some very close games before it was all over.

The greatest strength of a pitcher, aside from his control, is what the players call his "mixture." That means no more nor less than what the word implies—a variety of fast and slow balls, his serving of this or that curve. What we call the "change of pace," the delivering of a fast and then a slow ball with the same preliminary motions, and the mixing of a high fast ball and a low curve are the successful pitcher's best assets.

Lovers of baseball have often asked me how I deal with a batsman whom I have never faced and about whose batting ability I know nothing. Every seasoned pitcher has been called on often enough to meet batters he never saw before, and in such pinches he must rely largely on luck.

When I am facing a new batsman for the first time, I pay particular attention to two things—the position he assumes at the plate and the way he holds his bat. If, for instance, he holds his bat well up toward the middle there isn't much use of sending him speed. Batters of this type are always ready for speed and they can meet the fastest ball a man ever threw. A low curve on the inside will do for a starter, and if such a batter goes after it and fails to connect, you have his "number."

The batter who stands back from the plate with a long bat and a grip near the end is the one who can send a low curve into the southeastern quarter of the adjoining section.

While a batter may work hard and overcome a certain weakness, that does not necessarily mean that he becomes a great hitter. In centering his energies on overcoming his weakness for a high ball he may lose his strength on low balls because he has been continually fed high ones by opposing pitchers. In that case I would try him on a low ball and if it was found that he could still hit that the only thing left would be a curve ball or change of pace. It is often the case that a pitcher cannot deceive a batter's eyesight but he can deceive him mentally. For instance, most any batter can hit a slow ball if he knows it is coming. The same is true in regard to a fast ball, but if he is expecting a fast ball and gets a slow one, a strike out or a weak grounder to the infield will be his best offer.

Some batters, a few of the chosen, have no weakness that the most studious pitcher can detect. Men like Hans Wagner and Lajole don't care much what the opposing pitcher has to offer.

I have often been told by my friends that a pitcher is about 90 per cent. of the game, and have never failed to assure them that nothing could be further from the truth. A winning pitcher helps a baseball team a whole lot, of course, but there are eight other boys on that team, and nobody knows it better than the winning pitcher. The recent series between the Giants and Yankees will prove my point.

In that series I got away with every game in which I participated, but I won because I received magnificent support, both in the field and at the bat. Had George Witte been right, or had McGraw sent in Ames or Crandall, the story would have been the same if the support had been of the same splendid caliber. The wonderful work of Doolin, Devos and Doyle—the wonderful work of the whole team, for the matter of that—made defeat practically impossible. With that great machine working behind me and with the greatest manager of them all backing me up, I simply couldn't lose. That's how much a pitcher is 90 per cent. of the game.

As a matter of fact, it would be impossible to establish the mathematical relation of the pitcher to a ball club. Figures in baseball are often misleading. One pitcher may work brilliantly for 13 innings and have a 1 to 0 defeat marked up against his record, while on the following day another pitcher may luckily win a 10 to 8 game. It is a matter of record that in the season of 1909, Leon Ames of the Giants, in finishing a 17 inning game and participating in two extra inning lies, pitched 30 consecutive innings without allowing a run and yet did not win one of the games.

From this it can be seen that the winning power of a team must depend largely upon its run-getting ability. To reach an estimate of value we will say that offensive play is half the game. I think that conservative. That would leave but 50 per cent. of the strength of a ball club lies in the pitcher's box. No matter how effective a pitcher may be in the box he cannot win unless the team bats in runs behind him. It is true, however, that the work of a pitcher can have a very strong influence upon the work of the rest of the team. Disgraced fans frequently make the assertion that infielders and outfielders will not support certain pitchers. That idea is erroneous. Ball players always want to win, no matter what is in the box. It is usually lack of control on the part of the pitcher that disconcerts or demoralizes the infield. Players lose confidence because they are uncertain as to what will happen next. The catcher may call for a "pitch-out"—that is, a ball thrown wide of the batter, so that the catcher can have a clear throw to second to catch a runner who is about to steal. The infielders all see this signal and both the shortstop and second baseman leave their positions to assist in making the play. If the pitcher does not pitch-out, the batter may hit the ball through the spot left vacant and upset the whole team. Once they lose confidence in a pitcher a game, it is very difficult to regain it. It is not that they will not support the pitcher. On the contrary, it is the fault of the pitcher who will not give them a chance. If the pitcher has control everything works smoothly.

If it were true that pitching is 90 per cent. of the strength of a ball club, it would be logical to assume that the team having the best staff of pitchers would always win the pennant. That is not true. The baseball reader who pays attention to records will notice that the teams which win the pennants always have several players who lead in their respective departments. And this does not necessarily include the pitcher. For instance, the Baltimore club, back in the early nineties, won three successive pennants with pitchers whose names can scarcely be remembered. The backcountry cry of "What we need is pitchers" could well be changed to "What we need is hitters, base runners and fielders." Without them there can be no pennants.

sort of rot, you know, that you do talk when you're a silly little thing. Well, the matter used to laugh at us. I remember quite distinctly once I said something about what I would do when I was a major general, and she said:

"What a ridiculous child you are! You'll never make a soldier!"

And she told the pater about it and he laughed, too. You don't know how that upset me. I know that I was a silly little child and that I was talking awful rot, but I don't think they need have ridiculed me like that. Anyway, after a little bit, both Clifford and I couldn't help feeling that it wasn't good enough. We left off saying anything to the matter, or to the pater about what we wanted to be. Then we began to keep our own counsel about what we were actually doing.

And now we've got into a regular habit of minding out, own business and only telling the matter things that are really necessary. I know it hurts her, but I can't help it now. And don't you think it's not altogether my fault?—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Tacoma, Wash.—After traveling for fifteen months across the continent, sleeping in the open prairie, dodging freight and passenger trains, working along the right of way and feeding somehow through the summer and winter, "Collie," a thoroughbred collie dog, belonging to A. Brill of Edmonton, has just worked his way back to his old home near Sherbrook, Ontario. The owner has announced his intention of having the dog shipped back to Edmonton.

There's a Reason. "I've read the above letter. A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest."

Some of the best pitchers ever connected with professional baseball have received bumps from sources so humble that any false esteem they may have held for themselves has vanished like the snows of last season. Cy Young, the noblest old Roman of them all, has been beaten by village teams. The best pitchers of the world's champions, not long after they had trimmed the Cubs, were beaten by the unknown Cuban teams they faced during their late barn-storming trip. They pitched good ball, the kind of ball that would defeat any team if it came to a matter of whole season's record, but luck, the one thing above all others that makes baseball the thrilling and perfect game it is, decreed otherwise. There are times, you see, when all the science and all the outguessing in the world will not avail.

I shall never forget a trimming I got from a village team in Michigan. Just after we had defeated the Athletics for the world's championship in 1906, Frank Bowerman and I went on a hunting trip. As soon as the natives of Frank's home town, Romeo, Mich., knew that I was their guest, they came and begged us to do the battery work for the Romeo club in a game they were to play with the club representing the adjoining town. We agreed, and I am afraid that our willingness cost a lot of honest Romeo villagers everything except their family plate. The thought of defeat never entered their minds, any more than it entered ours, but the little rival towns did come over to Romeo and gave Messrs. Bowerman and Mathewson, fresh from their big league triumphs, a touch of high life that they never forgot. They bent us 6 to 0, and I guess they are celebrating it to this day. I don't know just how they managed it, because I was in perfect trim at that time. I had everything, as we say in professional circles, and they hit everything I had. I didn't mind it much myself, but I felt sorry for poor Bowerman. He had to keep on living there, and I didn't.

The real test of a pitcher's ability arrives when the opposing team gets men on bases. His responsibility is increased while his freedom of pitching motion is restricted. He must watch the base runner constantly and at the same time must deliver the ball to the batter with the least possible swing of the arm. In other words, he can't "wind up." Some pitchers find it difficult to get as much speed, curve or accuracy with the short arm motion as they do with their usual swing. This affects some pitchers mentally, as the curtailment of physical effort prevents them from concentrating their mind on the man at the bat. At the same time the base runners, and frequently the coaches, are constantly trying to annoy them. To protect himself the pitcher must try and detect some action on the part of the base runner which will indicate when he is going to attempt to steal the next base. In this he is materially assisted by the catcher. Once the pitcher or the catcher discovers when the runner is going to start the remedy is simple. Frequent throws to the base will prevent the runner from getting too much of a lead, and when he does start, the ball is pitched out of reach of the batter so that the catcher can have a clear throw to second.

While the pitcher is watching the base runner he knows that the base runner is also watching him, in an effort to ascertain whether the ball is to be delivered to the plate or to the base. Therefore, no preliminary movement on the part of the pitcher must betray his intentions. George Van Halteren, the famous base runner of his day, once told me that he could tell to a certainty when certain pitchers were going to deliver the ball to the batter. This enabled him to get a running start and many times the poor catcher was blamed for allowing a stolen base, when in fact the pitcher was unconsciously at fault. John McGraw, manager of the Giants, spends several weeks each season in teaching his young pitchers to overcome that kind of a weakness.

The tremendous popularity of the national game—its popularity is growing every year—means that in the years to come there will be hundreds of baseball stars where there are dozens now. Every healthy boy has it in him to become a good ball player, though he may never care to follow the pastime professionally. Being a professional player myself, I may be overfond of the game to which I owe so much, but I can think of many other callings and many other pastimes that a boy might better shun. Baseball is always played out in the sun, and the grass is green, and there is something about the game, or at least I have always found it so, which teaches one how to win or lose as a gentleman should, and that is a very fine thing to learn.

Phone Beating Out the Wire. Washington.—The extent to which the telephone has encroached on the telegraph as a means of dispatching trains during 1910 is shown in a bulletin issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission. An increase of 15,373 miles of railroad on which the telephone is used was shown during the year. On January 1, 1911, the telegraph was used on 176,211 miles and the telephone on 41,717 miles. The bulletin also shows that there were at the beginning of the year 71,969 miles of railroad in the United States operated under the block signal system, 17,711 miles of which were automatic. The increase in this system in 1910 was 5,473 miles, 3,473 miles being automatic.

Gotham Office Building Tallest in the World.

Structure Rises One-Seventh of a Mile From the Ground—Exceeded in Height Only by the Eiffel Tower.

New York.—Men will be at work daily in a structure of stone and steel one-seventh of a mile from the ground and in all of the 55 stories of the new Woolworth building before the end of next year, the time appointed for completion of the tallest business structure in the world. Laid out flat the giant building would be longer than three city blocks, and Salvatore's record speed for a mile would make 14 seconds the time necessary for the champion to cover the distance. Only the Eiffel tower, in Paris, a steel skeleton, will exceed in height this new east New York pinnacle.

Higher and higher do our skyscrapers soar, outtopping everything but the naphtic clouds of smoke from their own boilers, deeper and deeper do they thrust down through the soil until their massive steel roots find anchorage in the rock below. The true Titans of the modern world are the builders, heaving their tons of steel and stone and brick aloft in defiance of the law of gravitation and the winds of heaven and daring even the earth quakes to confound their work in ruin. Besides these modern giants of structural efficiency the builders of the early world were but pygmies playing with blocks in the nursery. How high will the skyscraper of the future mount? Has the physical limit been reached, or will the man-made Sierras of tomorrow lift their giant

I don't know just how they managed it, because I was in perfect trim at that time. I had everything, as we say in professional circles, and they hit everything I had. I didn't mind it much myself, but I felt sorry for poor Bowerman. He had to keep on living there, and I didn't.

The real test of a pitcher's ability arrives when the opposing team gets men on bases. His responsibility is increased while his freedom of pitching motion is restricted. He must watch the base runner constantly and at the same time must deliver the ball to the batter with the least possible swing of the arm. In other words, he can't "wind up." Some pitchers find it difficult to get as much speed, curve or accuracy with the short arm motion as they do with their usual swing. This affects some pitchers mentally, as the curtailment of physical effort prevents them from concentrating their mind on the man at the bat. At the same time the base runners, and frequently the coaches, are constantly trying to annoy them. To protect himself the pitcher must try and detect some action on the part of the base runner which will indicate when he is going to attempt to steal the next base. In this he is materially assisted by the catcher. Once the pitcher or the catcher discovers when the runner is going to start the remedy is simple. Frequent throws to the base will prevent the runner from getting too much of a lead, and when he does start, the ball is pitched out of reach of the batter so that the catcher can have a clear throw to second.

While the pitcher is watching the base runner he knows that the base runner is also watching him, in an effort to ascertain whether the ball is to be delivered to the plate or to the base. Therefore, no preliminary movement on the part of the pitcher must betray his intentions. George Van Halteren, the famous base runner of his day, once told me that he could tell to a certainty when certain pitchers were going to deliver the ball to the batter. This enabled him to get a running start and many times the poor catcher was blamed for allowing a stolen base, when in fact the pitcher was unconsciously at fault. John McGraw, manager of the Giants, spends several weeks each season in teaching his young pitchers to overcome that kind of a weakness.

The tremendous popularity of the national game—its popularity is growing every year—means that in the years to come there will be hundreds of baseball stars where there are dozens now. Every healthy boy has it in him to become a good ball player, though he may never care to follow the pastime professionally. Being a professional player myself, I may be overfond of the game to which I owe so much, but I can think of many other callings and many other pastimes that a boy might better shun. Baseball is always played out in the sun, and the grass is green, and there is something about the game, or at least I have always found it so, which teaches one how to win or lose as a gentleman should, and that is a very fine thing to learn.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Council Chamber, June 7th, 1911. Council met in regular session. Mayor Wheeler presiding. Aldermen present: Andrew Bamberg, Abel, Billmeyer, Ellis, Getzloff, Nash, G. master, Lukasek, Whitlock, Damon, Mosher, Payne and Jeffrey. Alderman absent: Davis and Erbanow. On motion, the reading of the minutes of the last meeting of the council was dispensed with.

On motion, by unanimous vote Alderman J. J. Jeffrey and Supervisors Edward Lynch and A. J. Hambrook were elected to serve on the Board of Review.

On motion, Aldermen Jeffrey, Davis, and Damon were appointed a committee for the purpose of considering applications for liquor licenses.

The street committee made the following report as to the cost of widening Oak Street after interviewing the several property owners.

REPORT OF STREET COMMITTEE ON WIDENING OF OAK ST.

McCarthy's will sell his property, Lot 1, Block 30, Nevees Addition, which is $450.00, for $500.00. We consider this property worth about $350.00, but would recommend paying them $400.00 for it, if it can be purchased at that price in order to avoid litigation.

Geo. W. Baker offers to sell us 20 ft. off of the south part of Lot 2, Block 30, and 20 ft. off of the south part of Lot 3, Block 15, Nevees Addition, each of these lots having a frontage of 60 ft. on Oak St., for $3,000.00, and we are to give in addition to this, the 11 ft. of the McCarthy lot which will be left after using 20 ft. of it for the street.

Mr. Baker claims that the land we want from him is worth $1.50 per sq. ft., or $450.00, and that it will cost him $120.00 to make such alterations and moving as will be necessary to place his buildings in as good a shape as they now are; this makes a total of $570.00. He figures that the 11 ft. of the McCarthy lot is worth $100.00 to him, leaving $370.00 to be what he really should have, but would take $300.00.

We base our value of the property we would take from Mr. Baker as follows:

Lot No. 2 is 60 ft. on Oak St. by 31 ft. short length and 55 ft. long length. This lot we think equals about half of a lot in length. A full lot 100 ft. in length would be worth $700.00. A front foot would be worth $7.00. The lot we would be worth $35.00 a front foot, or $2,200.00 value of this lot, and we take for the street 20 ft. or about half of the lot we would take $1,100.00.

Lot No. 3 is 60 ft. on Oak St. by 55 ft. short length and 88 ft. long length. This lot equals about 4-5ths of a full lot in length. This lot 100 feet in length would be worth $600.00 a front foot, while a lot 4-5ths in length should be worth $480.00 a front foot or $2,880.00 and we take for the street 20 ft. or about 1/4 of the lot which is worth $720.00. This makes value of the land we take from both lots $1770.00, while we give him 11 ft. by 50 ft. of the McCarthy lot, which he values at $1100.00. This leaves him $670.00 to which should be added the cost to him of moving and replacing the buildings in as good a condition as they now are. This we estimate will cost about $700.00, making a total we should pay him of $1370.00.

You will note that we have not taken into consideration and the benefit that the widening of Oak Street will be to the Baker property. The value we place on Lots 2 and 3, we base on what property can be purchased, that is situated directly across the street on Oak St. Taylor & Scott have 118 ft. facing Oak St. which is 100 ft. deep. This they are offering for $60.00 a front foot. These lots we consider of more value at the present time than those belonging to Mr. Baker located on the other side of the street.

Mrs. Cooney has not as yet made us a proposition for the 20 ft. we will need off of her property.

Mrs. Cooney's lot is Lot 4, Block 15, Nevees Addition, 60 ft. on Oak St. and 88 ft. short length and 100 feet long length. A full lot 100 feet in length we figure is worth $600 per front foot. As this is about 9-10ths of a full lot in length we consider it worth $540.00 per front foot or $3240.00, and as we take 20 ft. or 2-9ths of the lot, what we take would be worth $720.00. To this should be added what it will cost to move back the house and place it in as good a condition as it now is, which we estimate at $300.00, making a total of $1020.00. We have not attempted to fix the benefits that the widening of Oak St. will be to Mrs. Cooney's property.

Signed Street Committee E. W. Ellis J. O. Bamberg

On motion, the council directed and authorized the street committee to offer the McCarthy estate $1000.00 for their property, Lot 1, Block 30, Nevees Addition, G. W. Baker $1370.00 and the most northerly 11 ft. off the McCarthy lot, for 20 ft. off the south part of Lot 2, Block 30, and 20 ft. off the south part of Lot 3, Block 15 and Mrs. Cooney $1200.00 for 20 feet of the south part of Lot 4 Block 15 and exempt them from any special assessments that may arise from widening Oak Street. If refused by any or all property owners the City Attorney is instructed to prepare papers for condemnation proceedings at once.

There was a petition presented by Geo. L. Williams signed by owners of more than one half of the lots and lands abutting on Third Street South, from Oak Street to a point in the bond said Third Street South, south of the residence of Geo. L. Williams praying that you cause said Third Street South, between Oak Street and said bond to be sprinkled from May 13th, to Oct. 1st, 1911, as provided by Chapter 45, of laws of 1911.

On motion the board of public works and city engineer were instructed to proceed forthwith to provide for sprinkling said street if found as requested.

On motion Aldermen Abel, Payne and Nash were appointed a committee to investigate and ascertain the cost per square yard of sprinkling the street and to report at the next meeting of the council. The street committee made the following report on Baker Street between 7th and 8th street.

REPORT OF STREET COMMITTEE ON BAKER ST., BETWEEN 7th AND 8th ST.

This part of Baker street is always in a bad condition, especially so, after hard rains, and we recommend that a 12" sewer be laid on 7th street from Baker to Wisconsin Sts., a distance of 264 ft., and two catch basins placed at 7th St. and Baker St. The city engineer informs us that this is the best way this part of Baker St. can be properly drained.

Signed Street Committee E. W. Ellis J. O. Bamberg

On motion, by unanimous vote the clerk calling the roll the report was adopted and the sewer committee instructed to construct the sewer.

On motion the clerk was instructed to submit the fire limits ordinance to Attorney B. R. Goggins for an opinion as to its legality.

The street committee made the following report on the extension of Third Street High School.

REPORT OF STREET COMMITTEE ON THE EXTENSION OF VINE OR BIRCH ST. TO HIGH SCHOOL

We recommend the extension east of 7th St. in Nevees Addition, distance of about two blocks, to intersect a street heretofore laid and opened through Block 8 of the subdivision of the S. N. W. 17-224. This will give a street running directly to the High School from 3rd St. So. Mr. B. Koenig will need to the city the land necessary for this street.

Signed Street Committee E. W. Ellis J. O. Bamberg

On motion by unanimous vote the clerk calling the roll the report was adopted and the street committee instructed to open up said street as soon as the purpose of the same is approved.

The finance committee made the following report on the annual report of the city treasurer.

Boy Captures Wildcat.

Marshfield Herald:—Bleeding from many wounds and his clothes torn to shreds, the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sebba, farmers residing in the town of McMillan, came home last Sunday from the woods carrying in his arms a young wildcat which he captured in a log, winning in the fight by main strength and endurance. The animal was about half grown and from the looks of the boy's face, hands and clothing the strife for the survival of the fittest must have been a fierce one. A dog the boy had with him ran the cat in a log and with the aid of an ax the boy chopped him out capturing him alive. After getting him home the cat got away from his captor and hid in the basement but was soon after recaptured by the plucky youngster who by this time had all the fight he wanted and put an end to the cat's life with a club.

The inhabitants of the United States eat more meat than any other civilized nation in the world. Statistics go to show that the average person in this country eats 180 pounds of meat a year. Iflard is added along with the other pork products the average consumption is increased to 185 pounds per person. The United States stands at the top of the list of meat-producing nations.

Wausau is to test out brick pavement on the streets and if satisfactory longer stretches will probably be laid in the future. Where brick pavement has been tried in cities it has proven very satisfactory and it would seem as if this were the best material to use in this city on the few blocks in the heart of the city where the traffic is heaviest.

Nic Thomas says that he intends to move his saloon building back a few feet from the street. Nic says that one of our citizens went out to his place recently and while turning his auto around ran into the building. Nic wants to make it as pleasant as possible for visitors and in order to avoid a repetition of the occurrence he will have the building moved.

Joe Seidl, who has been conducting a butcher shop in Marshfield for many years, had his shop closed last week by Chief Food Inspector Buzzell of the dairy and food department of Madison. The inspector reports he found the meat in a moldy condition and the shop very unsanitary. This is not the only dirty butcher shop in the state and we hope the dairy and food department will let the good work go on.

Marshfield Herald:—Cal Wood of Grand Rapids, district oil inspector, was seen here yesterday circulating around town with an oil can trying to buy gasoline. As the can was not of the regulation kind he was turned down by our dealers and in his report to the state department he will say he found conditions as they should be.—Dr. O. T. Hougren and John Furlish of Grand Rapids accompanied by Dr. E. Hougren of Pittsville passed through here Monday on their way to St. Cloud, Minnesota, where they went to attend the annual meeting of the Wabab Pulp & Paper Co., in which they are stockholders.

District Attorney Briere was in the city Wednesday having come up to prosecute the case of the state of Wisconsin against Jos. Grosbier accused of selling liquor to minors. The case was adjourned.—E. E. Ames, Wood County's popular register of deeds, was a Marshfield visitor Wednesday. He is having a good run of office work.

About sixty ladies responded to the invitations sent out by Mrs. E. W. Ellis on Wednesday afternoon for a one o'clock luncheon and bridge party, and these who attended pronounced it one of the most delightful functions of the season. The rooms and tables had been decorated in a most tasteful manner, the color scheme being so arranged as to be most pleasing to the eye. After luncheon the time was spent in playing bridge. A most pleasant afternoon was the result.

Boy Captures Wildcat.

Marshfield Herald:—Bleeding from many wounds and his clothes torn to shreds, the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Scobie, farmers residing in the town of McMillan, came home last Sunday from the woods carrying in his arms a young wildcat which he captured in a leg, winning in the fight by main strength and endurance. The animal was about half grown and from the looks of the boy's face, hands and clothing the strife for the survival of the fittest must have been a fierce one. A dog the boy had with him ran the cat in a log and with the aid of an axe the boy chopped him out capturing him alive. After getting him home the cat got away from his captor and hid in the basement but was soon after recovered by the plucky youngster who by this time had all the fight he wanted and put an end to the cat's life with a club.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.
Council Chamber, June 7th, 1911.
Council met in regular session, Mayor Wheeler presiding. Aldermen present: Andrew, Bamberg, Gillmaster, Ellis, Gatzoff, Nash, Gilmaster, Lukasecki, Whitlock, Damon, Mosher, Payne and Jeffrey. Aldermen absent: Davis and Pribbanow.

On motion, the reading of the minutes of the last meeting of the council was dispensed with.

On motion, by unanimous vote Alderman J. J. Jeffrey and Supervisor Edward Lynch and A. J. Barstow were elected to serve on the Board of Review.

On motion, Aldermen Jeffrey, Davis, and Damon were appointed a committee for the purpose of considering applications for liquor sellers licenses. The street committee made the following report as to the cost of widening Oak St. and widening the several property owners.

REPORT OF STREET COMMITTEE ON WIDENING OF OAK ST.
McCarthy's will sell their property, Lot 1, Block 30, Neeves Addition, which is 31.50 ft. for $5000.00. We consider this property worth about $3500, but would recommend having them sell it at $4000.00 for it, if it can be purchased at that price in order to avoid litigation. Geo. W. Baker offers to sell 20 ft. off of the south part of Lot 2, Block 30, and 20 ft. off of the south part of Lot 3, Block 30, Neeves Addition, each of these lots having a frontage of 60 ft. on Oak St., for $3,000.00, and we are to give in addition to this, the McCarthy lot, which will be left after using 20 ft. of the street. Mr. Baker claims that the land we want from him is worth $1,500 per sq. ft., or $3000.00, and that it will cost him $1200.00 to make such alterations and moving as will be necessary to place his buildings in as good a shape as they now are; this makes the 11 ft. of the McCarthy lot is worth $1100.00 to him, leaving $700.00 to be what he really should have, but would take $3000.00.

We have our value of the property we would take from Mr. Baker as follows:—
Lot No. 2 is 60 ft. on Oak St. by 31 ft. short length and 55 ft. long length. This lot we think equals about half of a lot in length. A full lot 100 ft. in length would be worth $700.00. A front lot, while a lot only half in length, could be worth $350.00 a front lot, or $2100.00 value of this lot, and we take for the street 20 ft. or about half of the lot which is worth $1050.00.

Lot No. 3 is 60 ft. on Oak St. by 55 ft. short length and 88 ft. long length. This lot equals about 4-5ths of a full lot in length. This lot if 100 feet in length would be worth $600.00 a front lot, while a lot 4-5ths in length should be worth $480.00 a front lot or $2880.00 and we take for the street 20 ft. or about 1/4 of the lot which is worth $720.00. This makes value of the lot in we take from both lots $1770.00, while we give him 11 ft. by 50 ft. of the McCarthy lot, which he values at $1100.00. This leaves him $700.00 to which should be added the cost to him of moving and replacing the buildings in as good a condition as they now are. This we estimate will cost about $700.00, making a total we should pay him of $1500.00.

You will note that we have not taken into consideration any of the benefits that the widening of Oak Street will be to the Baker property. The value we place on Lots 2 and 3, we base on what property can be purchased, that is situated directly across the street on Oak St. Taylor & Scott have 118 ft. facing Oak St., which is 100 ft. deep. They are offering for $60.00 a front lot. These lots we consider of more value at the present time than those belonging to Mr. Baker located on the other side of the street.

Mrs. Cooney has not as yet made us a proposition for the 20 ft. we will need off her property.

Mrs. Cooney's lot is Lot 4, Block 15, Neeves Addition, 60 ft. on Oak St. and 88 ft. short length and 100 feet long length. A full lot 100 feet in length we figure is worth $600 per front foot. As this is about 9/10ths of a lot in length we consider it worth $540.00 per front foot or $3240.00, and as we take 20 ft. or 2-10ths of the lot, what we take would be worth $720.00. To this should be added what it will cost to move back the house and place it in as good condition as it now is, which we estimate at $300.00, making a total of $1020.00. We have not attempted to fix the benefits that the widening of Oak St. will be to Mrs. Cooney's property.

On motion, the council directed and authorized the street committee to offer the McCarthy estate $4000.00 for their property, Lot 1, Block 30, Neeves Addition, Geo. W. Baker $1370.00 and the most northerly 11 ft. off the McCarthy lot, for 20 ft. off the south part of Lot 2, Block 30, and 20 ft. off the south part of Lot 3, Block 15 and Mrs. Cooney $1200.00 for 20 feet of the south part of Lot 4 Block 15 and exempt them from any special assessments that may arise from widening Oak Street. If refused by any or all property owners the City Attorney is instructed to prepare papers for condemnation proceedings at once.

There was a petition presented by Geo. L. Williams signed by owners of more than one half of the lots and lands abutting on Third Street South, from Oak Street to a point in the bend of said Third Street South, south of the residence of Geo. L. Williams praying that you cause said Third Street South, between Oak Street and said bend to be sprinkled from May 13th, to Oct. 1st, 1911, as provided by Chapter 45, of laws of 1911.

On motion the board of public works and city engineer were instructed to proceed to investigate and ascertain the cost per square yard of sprinkling the streets with oil and report at the next meeting of the council. The street committee made the following report on Baker Street between 7th and 8th street.

REPORT OF STREET COMMITTEE ON BAKER ST. BETWEEN 7TH AND 8TH ST.
This part of Baker street is always in a bad condition, especially so, after hard rains, and we recommend so, a 12" sewer be laid on 7th street from Baker to Wisconsin St., a distance of 364 ft., and two catch basins placed at 7th St. and Baker St. The city engineer informs us that this is the best way this part of Baker St. can be properly drained.

Mrs. Cooney has not as yet made us a proposition for the 20 ft. we will need off her property.

Mrs. Cooney's lot is Lot 4, Block 15, Neeves Addition, 60 ft. on Oak St. and 88 ft. short length and 100 feet long length. A full lot 100 feet in length we figure is worth $600 per front foot. As this is about 9/10ths of a lot in length we consider it worth $540.00 per front foot or $3240.00, and as we take 20 ft. or 2-10ths of the lot, what we take would be worth $720.00. To this should be added what it will cost to move back the house and place it in as good condition as it now is, which we estimate at $300.00, making a total of $1020.00. We have not attempted to fix the benefits that the widening of Oak St. will be to Mrs. Cooney's property.
